LODGING SUPPLY INC.
ГОСТИНИЦА ПОСТАВКИ

July 12, 2010

Greetings to you during this very busy summer season! As you know, LSI's scheduled price increases are set for January 1 and July 1. In order to help our customers during this very difficult economic time, we have not raised the bulk of our prices since July 1, 2008.

Unfortunately, our manufacturers have raised pricing many times due to raw material price increases/supply and demand issues; we must now raise some of our prices. While many of the pricing changes we are passing along are increases, we are glad to offer a few decreases. Our pricing changes will take affect on September 1, 2010.

In addition to continuing to offer no case packs and no minimum orders, LSI has very competitive pricing. In fact, you will find that most of our items are priced below that of our competitors' volume discount pricing! For quotes on large quantities or Kitchen in a Box options, please contact your friendly customer service representative. Our main number is 877-831-3811, or you can always find us on the web at www.lodgingsupply.com.

Please think of Lodging Supply if you need a source for any hospitality or foodservice items you cannot locate on our regular pricelists or website. We have hundreds of vendors and access to thousands of items at great pricing! We would be happy to send samples of any items you wish to look at or test in action. Please watch our website for new items such as cleaning supplies, cookware/bakeware, GO GREEN, guest room/bathroom hardware options and more.

We truly appreciate your business,

Katie Peterson
Vice President
